

2010 MIIS INTERNATIONAL TRADE & INVESTMENT CONFERENCE:

Opportunities and Strategies in Emerging Economies

Friday, March 12, 2010, 9:00am to 5:00pm

OPENING REMARKS:

Dr. Sunder Ramaswamy, President of Monterey Institute of International Studies

KEYNOTE ADDRESSES:

Dr. Robert A. Rogowsky, Director of Operations for the US International Trade Commission

Dr. William W. Lewis, Founder and former Director of the McKinsey Global Institute

CLOSING REMARKS:

Ambassador Alan Wolff, Distinguished Research Professor at Monterey Institute of International Studies and former US Deputy Trade Representative

PANELS:

The Future of the Global Trading System: Emerging Economies' Response

Trade & Development: Empowering the Base of the Pyramid

Carbon Markets: Developing Countries & the Next Clean Development Mechanism

Financing International Development Projects: Successes & Challenges

HOSTED BY:

Monterey Institute of International Studies Trade Club

For more information and registration visit:

<http://blogs.miis.edu/tradeconference/>

