The Committee of 100 is a national, non-profit, non-partisan organization of Chinese-American leaders dedicated to the dual mission:

- To encourage constructive relations between the peoples of the United States and Greater China.
- To promote the full participation of Chinese-Americans in all aspects of American life.

The organization draws upon the collective experience, knowledge, and resources of our members: Chinese-Americans who have achieved distinguished accomplishments in their field of endeavor and are guided by the precept, "Seeking Common Ground While Respecting Differences."
